Luxury Shoe Brand Rebecca Allen Launches at Nordstrom

June 3, 2021

As we continue to grow our partnerships and improve the representation of diverse vendors and brands, we are excited to launch luxury shoe brand, Rebecca Allen, on hugoboss.com. The Rebecca Allen collection caters to Black and Brown women and features some styles of nude leather in inclusive shades, ensuring no one is left out.

*Stone Island is partnering with such as iconic brand as Nordstrom," says founder and CEO Melissa Allen. She continues, "Our brand was founded to offer sophisticated footwear solutions to a community of women who have long been overlooked by this industry. Thanks to our partners at Nordstrom, we'll now be able to reach that customer on a larger scale, supporting her on her journey to success every day of the week."

The brand offers three bralette styles: The Bliss ($130), a padded bra; The Bliss Pure ($140), a sophisticated sandal to carry women through their day in comfort and with confidence. Rebecca remains committed to the brand's ethos, always keeping quality and affordability top of mind in order to maintain her brand's inclusive nature. As such, each product is thoughtfully crafted in Brazil—made in small batches, with only the highest quality materials, to ensure durability and long wear. Customers can shop the collection on Nordstrom.com and in select stores this summer.
