NORDSTROM HIRING 280 LOCAL SALES AND SUPPORT POSITIONS FOR NEW SONO COLLECTION STORE Hiring days taking place in-store on August 16 and 17

WHAT: Leading fashion specialty retailer Nordstrom, Inc. is hiring 280 employees for its new full-line retail store in Norwalk, CT, opening Friday, October 11 at the exciting SoNo Collection. Sales and support positions will be posted on <https://careers.nordstrom.com>. Interested applicants can also learn more through hiring events taking place in-store on August 16 and 17, from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Sales positions are available in all areas, including women's, men's and children's apparel, shoes, accessories and beauty, including hair styling services as well as nail and brow technicians. Support positions include alterations, building services, housekeeping, and loss prevention, as well as jobs specific to the store's restaurant and coffee bar.

New hires will participate in extensive product-knowledge seminars, selling immersion and a day of shadowing at a neighboring Nordstrom full-line store. The company offers comprehensive benefits for all of its employees including competitive pay, transit subsidy, a merchandise discount, as well as employee charitable match and volunteering programs. Eligible employees also receive medical coverage, an employer-matched retirement plan, and much more.

Nordstrom named Molly Carmody as store manager of its new SoNo Collection store in late July. Carmody began her career with Nordstrom in 2007, holding various department manager roles in Designer and the Personal Styling division. Her first store manager role supported Nordstrom Rack the Shops of Southlake in Southlake, Texas, from where she was named store manager of Nordstrom Fashion Place in Murray, Utah and most recently, store manager of Nordstrom FlatIron Crossing in Broomfield, Colorado. In her newest role, Carmody will be responsible for overseeing all operations of the 140,000-square-foot store.
